SOCIÉTÉ JERSIAISE

2026 SOCIÉTÉ JERSIAISE BULLETIN

CALL FOR INTEREST

Context:

Established in 1873, the Société's mission is to facilitate research on the Island's history, culture, language and environment; and to share that knowledge with the widest possible audience for the benefit of our island community.

The Société holds extensive bibliographic, cartographic, photographic and research collections which act as our long-term memory. These collections provide a vital resource informing contemporary study and value for the community through a greater understanding of our shared heritage, identity and environment.

Call for Submissions:

The Société Jersiaise invites submissions for the 2026 Bulletin. Ideally, submissions would draw from the rich catalogue of research collections, sections and departments held across the Société Jersiaise. The Jersey Archive is also a good source for primary material. Examples of topics include but are not limited to:

- History
- Archaeology
- La Langue Jerriaise
- Architecture
- Environment
- Ornithology
- Marine Biology
- Entomology
- Geology
- Meteorology
- Mycology
- Zoology
- Architecture
- Bibliography
- Botany

Submissions can vary in breadth and depth, including:

- Review summary (750 – 850 words)
- Article (2,000 – 4,000 words)
- Study (5,000 – 8,000 words)

Pls submit all proposals to hello@societe.je by MONDAY, 15 DECEMBER 2025
